DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-17, drawn to a composition, classified in class 252, subclass 1.
 - II. Claims 18-24, drawn to method of determining a dialdehyde content, classified in class 436, subclass 128.
 - III. Claims 25-29, drawn to a method of quantitatively determining the dialdehyde content, classified in class 436, subclass 128.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group I and Group II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the composition can be used in a materially different process.
3. Inventions Group I and Group III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the composition can be used in a materially different process.

Art Unit: 1743

4. Inventions Group II and Group III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions have different modes of operation.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. During a telephone conversation with Jim Napoli on September 17, 2002 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-17. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 18-29 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The instant claims recite that the composition is capable of "measurable color transition." However, there is dye component present in the claim. How is the color produced? Is there a dye necessary to exhibit the measurable color transition? Further clarification is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

10. Claims 1-4, 7-11, 13, 14, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by USP 5,380,533 to Egidio et al. (herein referred to as "Egidio '533").

Egidio '533 teach a composition comprising: L-arginine, hydroxypropylcellulose, polyethylene glycol and water (col. 9, lines 1-8; Example 7). With respect to the exhibition of a detectable and measurable color transition, in the presence of 0-20% by weight dialdehyde, as the composition is the same as that taught by Egidio '533, it would inherently possess this ability.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 5, 6, 12 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

12. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art does not teach or suggest an indicating composition as recited, including the particular amounts recited in the instant claims.
